

3/4/2024

Active Feminist Bookstores in the South

NOTE: We only include bookstores using the word “feminist” in their mission statement or other store description.

BookWoman, Austin, TX, since 1975, www.ebookwoman.com Celebrated in USA Today in January 2024.

Burdock Book Collective, Birmingham, AL, since 2018, www.burdockbookcollective.com Begun as a “popup” bookseller, Burdock now has a home at the Birmingham Quaker meeting house.

Charis Books & More, Decatur, GA, since 1974, www.charisbooksandmore.com
“The South's oldest independent feminist bookstore” is now partnered with Agnes Scott College as the college bookstore.

eleanor’s norfolk [sic], Norfolk, VA, since 2023? eleanorsnfk.com “Your local intersectional feminist bookstore & bottle shop” (they sell books as well as “beer, cider, wine, and mead from makers who value sustainability & ethical farming and labor practices.”

Violet Valley Bookstore, Water Valley, MS (Saturdays only), since 2017
violetvalleybookstore.wordpress.com

Old Lesbians Organizing for Change (OLOC) maintains a list of lesbian/woman-owned feminist bookstores, most of which state that they are “feminist.”